

My visit of a haunted castle

I visited Stirling Castle which is located in Stirling (Scotland). The castle looked gloomy and abandoned. It looked like a haunted fortress. The landscape looked hostile and desolate. The atmosphere was scary because it was dark. I was terrified but I could not wait to enter the castle.

When I entered the fortress, I heard strange noises. I saw a shadow appear. I had inquired about the ghost who haunted the castle so I thought about « The Green Lady ». This ghost had been living in the fortress for over a hundred years. The Green Lady was a servant of the owner. She died at the beginning of the 20th century. This ghost appears at night. It announces tragic events.

I was in the living room, sitting in an armchair, and then I saw a green shadow. I understood that it was The Green Lady. I was not reassured and I had chills. I had never experienced this feeling of fear.
